What does your family look like?
Make a drawing of them here:

3 YEARS OLD
I started playing the piano.

4 YEARS OLD
I learned how to play the violin.

5 YEARS OLD
I made my first written composition.

6 YEARS OLD and also...

1. I performed for the first time in front of the emperor of Vienna and his family...
2. I performed with my sister in cities like: Munich, Wien, Frankfurt, Liege, Brussels and Paris.

My parents introduced us to the wonderful world of music with a lot of imagination.

My childhood was full of love, company from my family and of course a lot of music.

I wrote my first symphony and I already had over 40 musical pieces, including the Turkish March.

Have you listened to it already?
It's on the CD!

My secrets...

- ♪ I used to cover my hands with a handkerchief so I couldn't see the keys of the harpsichord.
- ♪ I could remember melodies that I heard from others as soon as I got home I could play them again.
- ♪ Melodies would pop out of my mind, I did magic.
- ♪ I wrote accurately and fast, they called me "the prodigious kid".

12 YEARS OLD

I dared to play operas like Bastian and Bastiana.

I was a good friend of Haydn, from whom I learned everything about string quartets.
